LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

As an organization, our dream has always been to create a better tomorrow for people everywhere. This past year, World Harvest worked hard to reach people in need in underprivileged and secluded areas around the world. We rallied to raise awareness and support for refugees, extend and give access to quality education to children, equip and mentor leaders to transform and lift their communities out of poverty, and provide emergency relief in light of the outbreak of war or the presence of natural disasters.

With your support, World Harvest was able to accomplish the goals it set out for all five of our pillars of service. Amongst the many accomplishments, we were able to distribute thousands of meals and extend free medical services for communities that needed it, helped 300+ kids graduate from our six different Wahana Harapan Schools around Indonesia, were able to reach millions through our U-Channel broadcasting programs, and successfully raise passionate and well-informed teachers to raise a generation of world-class leaders.

At World Harvest, we believe that creating a better tomorrow is made possible when we collectively act in response to a world in dire need of care and support. Together, we can help millions of lives break free from the vicious cycle of poverty and empower individuals to be able to create productive and sustainable communities.

On behalf of World Harvest, I would like to extend my deepest thanks for helping us aid others in creating a better tomorrow for themselves. It is because of your generosity that we are one step closer to a world free of poverty. Let's continue to make big strides.

LETTER FROM THE VICE CHAIRMAN

Dear WorldHarvest partners,

In 2017 we continue growing in our cornerstone program, Sponsor A Child. In USA, we now sponsor more than 750 children in the 6 countries we work in: D.R. Congo, Uganda, Sierra Leone, Nepal, Pakistan and Indonesia. We adopted one school in Hassanabdal, Pakistan, where hundreds of Hindu Sikh children are not allowed in the public schools because of religious persecution. We stand for the rights of all children to obtain education and the chance for a brighter future, breaking the cycle of poverty. This year we will be expanding into India, where we will be starting a school near Guntur, South India.

Hurricane Harvey slammed into Texas late August as the wettest tropical cyclone on record in the United States, causing as much financial damage with Katrina. WorldHarvest partners with IFGF Houston, IFGF Austin, The Jewish Federation and Somebody Cares Int'l to bring much needed relief. Hundreds of volunteers were involved bringing thousands of bottled waters, tons of food and sanitary supplies in the affected areas.

Half a world away, South Sudan experienced a civil war that resulted in 1.8 million displaced people and a massive food shortage, affecting a million children. I had the privilege of bringing 24 tons of food, a truck load of medicine and held a feeding camp and medical clinic.

We are honored to be your trusted hands and feet of compassion to care for those facing terrible circumstances in their lives. One child at a time, one soul at a time, we are making life changing impact. Thank you for your compassion, thank you for reaching out, and thank you for our partnership. Let us continue to increase our good work while there is still time. Happy and impactful 2018!

Thank you for your partnership,
Daniel Hanafi
CO-Founder & Vice Chairman of World Harvest

HARVEST COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

FULL HOME RENOVATION FOR SEPTIAN

At World Harvest, we are committed to providing holistic assistance for our sponsor a children and their families. We believe that creating environments that encourage and cultivate good learning rhythms are important to a child's success. Thus, World Harvest launched its full home renovation initiative.

This year, one of renovation initiatives went out to our adopted child, Septian Bayu Tirta. When we visited Septian's home, we quickly observed that his home was falling apart. It was much too small to be occupied by five people, had leakages throughout the roof, had a door that was made out of what was essentially paper, and always experienced flooding whenever it rained in Jakarta. How was Septian supposed to study well under those conditions?

As a result, we went in to fully renovate Septian's home. We installed a new, real door, helped expand space through organization and expansion and managed to replace his roof. Through your help and our initiative, Septian's family can now live comfortably, and Septian can now learn in a good environment.

Testimony from Mrs. Nani (Septian's Parents)

"Thanks to World Harvest, our home now actually feels like home. My family and I can now live without fear of flooding or fear that the infrastructure of our home will come apart in light of strong winds or rain. We are so grateful for the work that World Harvest does."

DISTRIBUTION OF NUTRITIONAL MEALS FOR OUR SPONSORED CHILDREN

Over the past five years, World Harvest has partnered with Hand of Hope, an organization that providing nutritional meals to children all over the world. Over this past half a decade, with our partnership with Hand of Hope, World Harvest have successfully distributed 209, 220 nutritious meals to our sponsored children across five of the communities we have helped develop - Kampung Melayu, Kampung Baru, Wates, Kedaung and Kampung Sawah. At our food distribution initiatives, we also take time to bring in speakers to talk about topics such as character building and leadership. In World Harvest, we believe that nutrition is essential to a child's academic success and prowess, and with the help of Hand of Hope, we have been able to successfully meet our children's nutritional needs.

Testimony of Even (Kampung Baru Community, Bogor)

"My name is Even, and I am currently a student in the Hosana Elementary School in Kampung Baru, Bogor. At Hosana Elementary School, I've been privileged with both incredible teachers and friends. I have an overly tough set of parents, causing me to sometimes have anger outbursts as a response to their demands. When I first attended Hosana, I started some fights and caused some trouble and had a series of angry outbursts. Recently, however, I have made the decision to change my life for the better. Through the nutritional events at World Harvest, I have been able to attend the "character education" talks, and it has changed my perspective on becoming a better student and friend. I am very grateful for this nutritional initiative because I can expect to both get fed well and attain valuable life lessons."

Testimony of Mei Shia (Kedaung Elementary School)

"I am very happy to be able to be enrolled in Kedaung Elementary School. I really appreciate the nutritional program held at school because my parents no longer have to worry about the potential that I starve at school. Through this program, my parents are able to save money because they no longer have to provide pocket money for me to buy food during school hours. Also, thanks to the guidance and wisdom of the teachers in the school, I feel that I am both spiritually and mentally empowered and encouraged."

SERVED 1,100 PEOPLE WITH FREE MEDICAL SERVICES IN A NUMBER OF DIFFERENT COMMUNITIES

Today, a huge percentage of people in Jakarta are still denied access to healthcare services. To address that gap, World Harvest has made healthcare one of the pillars of its initiatives. By the end of 2017, World Harvest provided free treatment to 1,100 people across the Greater Jakarta Area. Amongst the many services we provide, we extended eye examinations and distributed free glasses to help meet their needs.

Testimony of Friska Sanjaya, Kampung Melayu Elementary School

"Thank you World Harvest! With your help, I can now see and read clearly from afar. I am now more excited than ever to read!"

Testimony of Mrs. Lina from Wates, Jakarta

"I am very grateful for World Harvest's medical services for our community - it has done wonders for our village. The medication prescribed always helps alleviate the sicknesses we have, and the doctors are always so kind. We are also very grateful for World Harvest because most of our citizens don't have BPJS (Subsides Government Health Care Program). In addition, the health facilities are very far from where we live. We hope this program can continue in our community!"

EMPOWERED TO BECOMING COMMUNITY CHAMPIONS THROUGH HEALTHCARE

Dr. Benny A. Giartomo

Dr. Ben is a dental specialist that worked at PT. ITS (Indonesia Toray Synthetics) in Ps. Baru, Tangerang. He also opened his own private dental clinic in Panongan, Tangerang.

"I have worked with the World Harvest team for 12 years to help improve community health through a variety of treatments. In light of the knowledge that many people still don't have access to quality healthcare, my convictions to help communities through my expertise solidified my decision to partner with World Harvest. Helping others is important to me. My hope is that this program can continue to run and that we can help people get healthy."

Dr. Brillyan Christopher

"I am one of the general practitioners who partnered with World Harvest since 2013. My desire is to help people live with good health. Aside from helping World Harvest, I also opened a general practitioner clinic in Perum, Tangerang and work as a medical doctor for Lion Air.

I've had a number of wonderful memories being a general practitioner in the World Harvest communities. Most of my appointments and practice with Lion Air are done in my home, but with World Harvest, I get the opportunity to go to underprivileged communities to serve. One distinctive memory I had was when I met a grandmother who busted into tears because she felt helped, seen and cared for by the medical treatments provided by World Harvest. The grandmother explained that she did not have enough money to buy her own prescriptions or to schedule her own examination to the hospital. Through World Harvest, she was able to attain the medical help she needed.

My hope is that this program will continue and that it will reach more and more people who are in need, so that we can create a healthier tomorrow for everyone.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION FOR OUR SPONSORED CHILDREN

This year, the theme of our Christmas campaign was #LoveToGive. At this event, we were able to raise 1,500 new bags for our sponsored children. This campaign was supported by IFGF Kids, Harvest Christian School Student and Kidz Castle student by distributing piggy banks for them in an effort to raise funds for kids their age who come from less privileged backgrounds in order to better promote sharing and generosity. This is one of our favorite events of the year, as we get to celebrate with the entire World Harvest community and celebrate the gift of Christmas together.

Testimony of Giovany from Kampung Melayu

"I was so excited to get a new bag at the end of the year. I will use this bag forever. Thank you, World Harvest, for always taking care of us!"
